Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 23, 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Specifically, they depend from a cancelled claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 1, 12, 21, 25 are allowable.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

selecting from the data-type record customized advisory information formatted to a language associated with the field service provider, the language being selected from one of the plurality of languages.

As per Claim 12.

The prior art of record, Wakefield II ('561), Doherty et al (6,735,293), Koropitzer et al (5,694,323) in view of Garber et al (4,905,163) does not disclose or fairly teach:
selecting a specific data conclusion based on the customer account identifier;
mapping the specific data conclusion to advisory information customized to a language format associated with the field service provider as specified by the provider identifier.

As per Claim 21.

Art Unit: 3639

The prior art of record, Wakefield II ('561), Doherty et al (6,735,293), Koropitzer et al (5,694,323) in view of Garber et al (4,905,163) does not disclose or fairly teach:

a database storing the generated advisory information in a plurality of language formats; and means for selecting advisory information from the database for presentation to the field service provider, wherein the selecting means selects the advisory information in one of the plurality of language formats based on the provider identifier and wherein the registration/communication modules presents the customized advisory information to the field service provider.

The claims that depend from the above claims are allowable for the same reasons.
